X For Governor,
SAMUEL M. JONES.A man is as much better than a dollar as truth is as much better than a lie.

Samuel M. Jones.

I claim no privilege for myself or for my family that I am not doing my utmost to secure for all others on equal terms.

Samuel M. Jones.

WHY VOTE FOR JONES?

Good Reasons, from Which the Fair-
Minded, Progressive Voter Cannot Escape.

By J. D. Buck, Cincinnati.

- 1st.—He is not a party candidate.
- 2d.—He is opposed to all party corruption or party rule.
- 3d.—He stands for, and believes in the Whole People.
- 4th.—He believes that human life and individual liberty are more sacred than money.
- 5th.—He is not owned by a political boss.
- 6th.—He is not the agent of a political ring.
- 7th.—He is no part of a political machine.
- 8th.—He does not believe in nor seek for spoils in politics.
- 9th.—He desires and seeks "nothing for himself that he is not doing his utmost to secure for all others on equal terms."
- 10th.—He is a free man and can therefore afford to be just.
- 11th.—He believes the purest religion and the best politics can and should clasp hands.
- 12th.—He believes in—
Measures before men,
Duty and not expediency,
Justice and not charity as the foundation of the social state.
- 13th.—By the election of Mr. Jones as governor. The people of the great State of Ohio may give an object lesson to the world and inaugurate a Government of the Whole People, that shall put an end to special privileges by which the few rob the many, and the rich grow richer, and the poor poorer.
- 14th.—Among the results that will follow the triumph of the principles for which Mr. Jones stands, are the following—

- (a) Equity in land values as to distribution and occupancy.
- (b) Great reduction in necessary taxation now doubled by political gang robbery. The equitable distribution of taxation among the whole people, a great part of which the majority of the rich now escape by trickery and perjury or a "pull" on the officials and bosses.
- (c) Public ownership of all public utilities, with reduction of cost to consumers and patrons and large increase in revenue to the whole people representing the State, and from whom all profits are derived.
- (d) Direct legislation, initiative and referendum, by which the whole people shall make their own laws and manage their own affairs without middlemen or representatives other than they appoint at will.

15th.—The foregoing just measures and acts are advocated squarely by Mr. Jones and opposed by every political boss, gang and machine known in politics, and will be to the crack of doom. If the people want justice they must help to secure it by destroying, root and branch that system which is built on injustice.

A vote for Jones is a vote for justice and against all injustice. Class rule must go. Class privilege must go. Boss rule must go. Gang rule must go. Machine rule must go. Party rule must go. Mammon rule must go.

The Whole People must rule themselves for the benefit of the Whole People.

VOTE FOR JONES.

The republican press is unanimous on the point that a vote for Jones is a vote for McLean. The democratic press is equally unanimous on the proposition that a vote for Jones is a vote for Hanna.

The Non-Partisans are every bit as unanimous that a vote for Jones is a vote against both the fraudulent machines and for the best interests of the people.

As Viewed from the Front.

A succession of swift and powerful attacks on the defenses of the two party hords has been made the past week on the strategic points of Dayton, Columbus Akron and Tiffin (Cleveland and Cincinnati being already taken), and each has been crowned with success. The enemy has been driven back, his outer works have been captured, and the demoralized fragments of his armies are huddled behind their last line of entrenchments, every jack of them knowing that when the final charge is made on November 7, everything will be carried with a rush. It is now proposed that the two wings of this defeated army—They are both "left" wings—he combined in order to make the best possible defense. But the morals and spirit of the troops are hopelessly broken, the officers are timid, and thousands of deserters and stragglers are reported daily.

Besides there is a general confusion of orders, for Major-General Hanna and Brigadier-General Foraker are urging their followers to move over to the support of Major-General McLean, while McLean has issued a like order to his followers to sortle out in Hanna's support. In consequence there is almost complete demoralization among the entrenched partisans, and all are praying for a speedy termination of the campaign. The staff and brigade officers are afraid to follow orders from headquarters regarding the shifting of troops from one command to the other, for fear that the Non-Partisans, who are keeping a close watch, will capture the whole force detached.

The victorious army in front of the entrenchments, flushed with the pride of initial successes is strongly massed, alert and ready for the coming effort. No one doubts that by November 7 every point of vantage will have been taken and that by January 2 headquarters will have been established in Columbus.

A Changed View of a Changed Man.

~~I am completely discouraged after trying so called specialists and different advertised remedies, I feel that I am getting worse instead of better and have about given up hope of ever being cured of my kidney trouble.~~

I have changed my mind, for, after reading of the positive guarantee of Foley's Kidney Cure, as a forlorn hope I tried a bottle, and the result was so favorable that I continued its use until I had taken three bottles which effected a thorough cure, and I am a changed man.
